2. Have each and every Bible verse memorized.
3. Understand and know all ancient history and cultures involving and surrounding the biblical accounts.
4. Understand and remember all sermons they have ever heard.
5. Pray each and every day for each and every person they have met that day.
6. Daily pray about everything, large or small in their lives, including things they forgot to pray about the day before.
7. Tell every single person they meet each day about the Gospel.
8. How to fully explain and answer any question about God from anyone to the person's satisfaction.
9. Have thorough knowledge of every major religion in the world and its history.
10. Have profound, wise sayings to say to people when prayers have not been readily or never answered.
11. The words to all hymns or worship songs ever sang.
12. Know how to ask God to open up the perfect parking spot and faith to find it.
13. Be a "walking" encyclopedia of 4,000 years of Judaism and Christianity.

14. Be able to fully explain any doctrine to anyone of any age, at any in 5 minutes or less!
15. The names of anyone and everyone who attends their church and any recent visitors as well.
16. The right amount to tithe every week.
17. Read Hebrew, Greek, Aramaic and Latin languages in order to impress anyone that they really know what they're talking about.
18. What size, shape, color, cover, weight and translation of the Bible is right for them.
19. Get their kids to church on time, all the time.
20. How to consistently solve any of life's problems in a godly way.
21. Be able to consistently recognize, refuse or run from any Temptation, day in and day out, during their whole life.
22. Be able to accurately interpret any significant current world event in the light of Bible prophecy.
23. Know what is God's heart and mind for any matter, problem, controversy, predicament, situation or relationship in life.
24. Know what to wear to church so as not to offend anybody.
25. Be able to place in chronological order all the books and events in the Bible.
26. At church—help in the children's nursery; effectively be able to teach pre-school, grade school, teenagers, college age, singles, "marrieds", adult Sunday school classes and sufficiently answer any questions raised.

Another story from REAL LIFE (that I made up!) This parody news story is for amusement. Any similarity to real people, places or things is fictitious and not to be taken as fact.
